

MI student receives Royal Institution of Naval Architects Scholarship

Calvin Lyn Kew was awarded the 2007 Royal Institution of Naval Architects (RINA) – Oceanic Student Naval Architect Award. Calvin, who is originally from Jamaica, is a 2007 graduate of the Naval Architecture program at the Marine Institute.

Founded in 1860, the Royal Institution of Naval Architects is a world renowned and highly respected international professional institution and learned society whose members are involved at all levels in the design, construction, maintenance and operation of all marine vessels and structures. RINA has members in over 90 countries, and is widely represented in industry, universities and colleges, and maritime organizations world-wide.

The award is presented to a student who has demonstrated excellence in project design. Calvin's project centered around the design of a research/training vessel for the Marine Institute.

*From left to right
Dr. Brian Veitch, MUN Engineering; Catherine Dutton, Head SMS;
Calvin Kew, Student; Bruce Whitelaw, Chair of Naval Architecture;
Dan Walker, President of OCEANIC Consulting Corporation*

The award was presented on August 3, 2007 at the Oceanic offices in St. John's.