

Internship Position Information

Internship Position Title	Impact on Sustainable Livelihood Management Intern
Country	Philippines
Location	Virtual - Iloilo City
Sector	Gender and Environment
Host Organization	John B. Lacson Foundation Maritime University
Position Description	The intern will assist in undertaking studies on the impacts of Sustainable Livelihood Programs of the Community Extension Services specifically for the various programs in the College of Business (BS Business Administration, BS Customs Administration, BS Tourism, and BS Cruise Ship Management). The intern will be expected to assist in analyzing the available data in the CES, prepare reports and presentations; and take part in other related information sharing and engagement activities. The internship may involve other activities and responsibilities as determined by the supervisor and/or JBLFMU.
Qualifications	Diploma or degree in maritime or business, gender studies, international development, sociology or related field; good interpersonal and presentation skills; experience in community stakeholder engagement.