

WHO WE ARE:

Toronto Drydock Limited is a fast-growing ship repair and operating company based in Toronto which owns and operates a fleet of tugs and barges, provides heavy lifts and project cargo transportation as well as vessel management and crewing for a bulk cement carrying barge on the Great Lakes St. Lawrence Seaway.

TORONTO DRYDOCK HAS IMMEDIATE NEED FOR THE FOLLOWING POSITIONS:

Master, Min. 500 ton

Ideal candidates would have tug experience, good ship handling ability, a Great Lakes Pilotage certificate, valid STCW competency certificate and Marine Medical. This is a full-time position on a tug starting immediately.

Mate, Min. Watchkeeping Mate, experience an asset but not necessary, this is a full time position on a tug that starts immediately. Candidates must have a valid STCW competency certificate and Marine Medical.

3rd Class Marine Engineer, experience an asset but not necessary, this is a full-time position on a tug that starts immediately. Candidates must have a valid STCW certificate of Competency and Marine Medical.

4th Class Marine Engineer, experience an asset but not necessary, this is a full-time position on a tug that starts immediately. Candidates must have a valid STCW certificate of competency, and Marine Medical.

Engine Room Rating, or SVMO experience an asset but not necessary, this is a full-time position on a tug that starts immediately. Candidates must have a valid STCW certificate of competency and Marine Medical.

WHAT WE OFFER:

Salaries commensurate with experience.

Apply with confidence to:

Meaghan Ivens
Toronto Drydock Limited
Meaghan@torontodrydock.com