Do you know an outstanding individual who has gone above and beyond in the pursuit of excellence, innovation and leadership in teaching at the Marine Institute? If so, help recognize this person’s efforts by submitting a nomination by Monday, March 1st, 2021!

This award is offered on an annual basis and is meant to acknowledge excellence primarily attained over a minimum of five calendar years prior to the awarding of this distinction.

The award is open to faculty and demonstrators who have not previously received the Marine Institute Teaching Award.

Nomination Coordinator:
As the nomination coordinator for the nominating group I wish to nominate ____________________________ for this year’s Marine Institute Teaching Award. I understand that the nominee is a full-time employee involved with teaching at the Marine Institute. I understand that no more than FIVE letters of support must be submitted in support of this nomination by THREE past or present students of the nominee (with contact information and signatures) and TWO other faculty members by Monday, March 1st, 2021! Note: self-nominations are not accepted.
